

Meet Successful Indian Artist Deeg Diganta

Assam, Jorhat, Jun 13, 2021 (Issuewire.com) - Deeg Diganta (born November 28, 1989) is an Indian singer-songwriter and lyricist. He primarily works for and sings in the Assamese language film and music industries. He is also an instrumentalist and plays dhol, dotara, drums, guitar, harmonium, keyboard, tabla, and various percussion instruments. Diganta was born in Demow, Assam to Promud Baruah and Labonya Baruah. He pursued a degree in Bachelor of Arts in Sociology at Demow College and after dropped out to concentrate on his singing career. He is brought up in Demow, Sivsagar. Where he was regularly active in singing, dancing, and dramatics competition in the College. At an early age, he was immersed in music. His father helped to nurture his musical talents, and digital marketing, spending countless hours with his son, singing and playing various instruments. At age 6 he first held a drumstick. After receiving high praise for his acting powers, and after much persuasion from his classmates, Diganta released a collection of video covers on YouTube. He has been acclaimed for writing "good lyrics" and poetry. Some of his written songs are "Premor Abir", "Moyur Pakhi", "Pranay", "Bakul", "Tulika Premore", "Lila", "Pubore Beli", "Dhemeliya", "Loilakh", "Eti Mitha Hahi", "Niyor Jetia Hore", "Aghuni Abeg", "Tumar Dusokute", "Bihu Lage", "Nilima", "Najanu Nubuju", "Ekhon Rupali Nodi", "Krishna", "Patla Saree", "Sokut Soku Thoi", "Mur Bukur Ful", "Tumi Vogoban", "Beli", "Phultel", "Sila", "Ful Nufulu", "Bhalpau Nuhudhiba Kiman", "O Valpuwa", "Bukure Majote", "Parishima", "Bijli" etc.

Media Contact

Asom Barta

kongkonborah999@gmail.com

7099435462

Garamur- Majuli

Source : Asom Barta

See on IssueWire