

Nishtha Shrivastava - young and laborious author from Bhopal

Nishtha Shrivastava An Author

Madhya Pradesh, Bhopal, Jun 3, 2021 (Issuewire.com) - Nishtha Shrivastava is a young, laborious, and passionate author from the city of Lakes Bhopal. She is one of those lucky ones who paved her dream in the right direction and landed up as one of the best-selling Indian Authors of 2020 with her debut novel Rakshabandhan. She did her graduation from Rajasthan technical University, and she terms her engineering days to be the fate decider where she started writing Rakshabandhan.

Apart from Rakshabandhan, Nishtha has been a co-author of “Ansuljhi Zindagi ke ankahe alfaaz “and her next novel is an anthology, “Silence” which is getting published on 26th January 2021 where she has weaved the unsung voices of women in society.

About the author:

A trained classical singer, a Bharatanatyam dancer, and a writer by heart, Nishtha is a girl who fits in every shape of life and believes in generating opportunities for herself. While writing Rakshabandhan, Nishtha realized her curiosity in becoming the voice of women as it is not easy to take the charge but she is ready to be the first one. With the criticism that society has laid on her on writing on an offbeat topic, Nishtha now finds her confidence even firm to continue writing in the same for all the coming years. One of her recent achievements is winning the title of Miss India Shining star 2020 and Miss India Vivacious 2020 in a National annual pageant. Nishtha dreams of writing many such stories and she wishes to become an entrepreneur to generate various opportunities for the female section of society. Nishtha shares the credit of all her achievements with her mother and her family who have been marvelous support.

About the book:

Rakshabandhan is a critic of the artificial societal frames and sketches the dark reality that changed the life of a little girl Nisha. Rakshabandhan is the most sacred and valued bond between two individuals of the opposite gender and the expectations that are framed from one another are enormous. This story unfolds the battle of a little one from the modern tantrums of a couple, their hardships of being together, and the ignorance that a child faces due to the differences between her parents. The expectations that she keeps from a cousin brother and the shivering end that brings peace to everybody else’s life and leaves her in a never-ending pain.

This one is a masterpiece and a super successful debut of the young author and should surely be read once.

Media Contact

Time PR

nishthashrivastava05@gmail.com

Source : Time PR

See on IssueWire

