Get to know Podiatrist Dr. Cason M. Quinn, who serves patients in Jupiter and Palm Beach Gardens, Florida.

New York, New York City, Jul 28, 2021 (IssueWire.com) - A highly-trained podiatrist in Florida, Dr. Quinn serves as an attending physician at Jupiter Medical Center & Palm Beach Gardens Medical Center. Some of the procedures that she performs include bone reposition and muscle resection.

Growing up in Norfolk, Virginia in a tight-knit family with her fraternal twin sister, Dr. Quinn moved to Saint Bonaventure, New York for her undergraduate studies and landed in Florida to pursue her profession as a foot and ankle surgeon. She graduated with her Doctor of Podiatric Medicine degree from the Barry University School of Podiatric Medicine in 2014. She then went on to perform her residency with Aria Health System - Torrance, followed by an additional residency at New York-Presbyterian Queens.

Her mom worked as a civilian for the US Navy and her dad was a substance abuse counselor. She never dreamed of being a surgeon but fate led her to her current profession.

An Associate Member of the American College of Foot and Ankle Surgeons (ACFAS), she is board-certified through the American Board of Foot and Ankle Surgery (ABFAS). The ABFAS strives to protect and improve the health and welfare of the public by advancing the art and science of foot and ankle surgery.

Podiatry is a branch of medicine devoted to the study, diagnosis, and medical and surgical treatment of a variety of disorders of the foot, ankle, and lower extremity. A podiatrist, also known as a podiatric physician or a foot and ankle surgeon, is a medical professional devoted to the treatment of disorders of the foot, ankle, and lower extremity. They can treat injuries and complications from ongoing health issues like diabetes.

Happily married, Dr. Quinn and her husband, Steve, have found their home and safe haven in Juno Beach.

On a more personal note, her favorite movie of all time is Coming to America with Eddie Murphy & Arsenio Hall. Her favorite type of music is rap music. Something on her bucket list is “Get a passport, use it, and also, be a dead body in a zombie movie.”
