

Emily Guo Builds A Safe And Harmless Society From Rescue "Sending Warmth With Love"

Western, Faleniu, Jul 2, 2021 (IssueWire.com) - The global economy affected by the COVID-19 epidemic has surpassed several economic crises in recent decades. It also makes most ordinary families lose their financial resources and get into trouble.

Emily Guo said that when she set up her own business, she set a goal, not forgetting her original intention, and should "taken from the community and giving back to society". Only when people face each other with sincerity, the world will be more beautiful and peaceful.

In order to help people in need more effectively, Emily Guo will launch the Emily Foundation and charity donation software next year, so that people in need can quickly find suitable channels to get assistance through the software. Simultaneously, a 24-hour hotline will be set up next year. She emphasized that the world's love activities are not accomplished by individual forces, but by the collective power of the global public. Relying on donations and donations from the global public, the Emily Foundation has enough funds and capital to help more people.

Global unity, creating tolerance, alleviating humanitarianism with charity. Establishing a strong charity group is the charity goal of Emily Guo, to allow the world to build a more fair society and to help the public's charity concept. Here, through charity donation software to inspire global charity forces and inject more social forces into charity.

"We must treat everyone as our family, so that we have the responsibility to help those in need, and the world will become better. We must continue the belief of "taken from the community, giving back to society", so we need to combine the power of the public to help those in need together." Emily Guo said.

Charity is the call of love, and kind caring is the deepest and most beautiful expression of mankind. It demands the care, support, and participation of the whole world. Let the public participate in charity, let charity benefit the public, spiritual ideas, and harmonious society.
