

Facemade Launches Natural Jade Gua Sha Massage Tool with Discount Prices

Facemade introduces Chinese therapy Gua Sha massage tool made of natural jade. Gua Sha therapy or scraping therapy is a traditional Chinese therapy to improve blood circulation and reduce wrinkles.

California, San Francisco, Jul 26, 2021 (IssueWire.com) - Facemade, a body, and personal care brand, has introduced a natural jade Gua Sha massage tool. Gua Sha therapy, known as scraping therapy, is an ancient Chinese traditional therapy for beauty care and health purposes. Gua Sha becomes beauty care & treatment trend nowadays, as many beauty treatment clinics provide beauty treatment with Gua Sha. Gua Sha beauty treatment utilizes a smooth edge tool like a jade stone or jade roller as a healing or facial tool. The method is different from other popular Chinese treatments like reflexology and traditional acupuncture. Additionally, Gua Sha therapy involves scraping the surface of the body and face skin. It is used for better blood circulation and flowing energy. Chinese women have used Gua Sha for face slimming as well.

Facemade Gua Sha is available in two colors, pink and green. Facemade spokesperson explained, "Facemade Gua Sha is a self-care tool made of 100% natural jade stone, it flows smoothly on the skins, and has many long-term benefits." Facemade Gua Sha is an affordable face and body treatment. Each package consists of a Gua Sha set and jade roller in exquisite packaging. Facemade jade roller has high-quality material, noise-free cap design, durable metal frame, and sturdy handle. Facemade Gua Sha is a self-care massage tool with many advantages; it promotes blood circulation & lymphatic drainage, relieves tension from muscles, and reduces fine lines & wrinkles.

Gua Sha is a hereditary East Asian treatment technique invented in the Ming Dynasty. For the best result, use Facemade Gua Sha once a day or two/three times a week. "You can use Gua Sha with water or facial cream on the face, scalp, and body, but avoid using it on bare skin. Scrape gently Gua Sha in one direction on some areas of the skins. Use Gua Sha to brighten color skins and relax muscle tension," said the store representative.
