Patience by GNR, my uncle bought the album because apparently, I kept singing it. the cover was a newspaper and that was the only song I really knew it.

I was inspired by a guy called Mr greens, one of the pioneers of reggaeton then he was my mentor, imagine how cool is that, one day you are listening to an album that changes the reggaeton music industry and some years later you are in the studio making songs with the producer of that album.

Maybe 5 or 10, I really don't remember, really ...I made more than 200 songs and collaborate in like 60 or more, is so hard to remember every single song.

when did you move to Dubai?

I move to Dubai 6/7 years ago. I suppose to be here for 1 season but the season never ends.

How have you seen Dubai change over the years?

It seems to be getting busier every year, all nationalities are here, "where you from" is the first question in this city.

where we can find you on this day in Dubai?

Club Blu is my new house, my new residence.

Three songs on your Blu playlist?

c'est la vie - Khaled

Danza Kuduro - Don Omar

Dior - Pop Smoke

What else are you working on right now?

making a new urban album with some artists from Dubai, Colombia, and Africa is something that I started almost 2 years ago and now is almost done.
