

Cloud Analogy Announces The Opening Of A New Office In Mohali

India, Chandigarh, Aug 1, 2021 (Issuewire.com) - Cloud Analogy is delighted to announce an exciting new venture in the company's ambition to become the leading provider of Salesforce Implementation and Development Services. The leading Salesforce ISV AppExchange Development Company announced the opening of a new branch in Mohali, Punjab.

Ajay Dubedi, the CEO and Founder of Cloud Analogy said, "Cloud Analogy is at the intersection of Salesforce Consulting services and cutting edge technology. We are pleased to be in Mohali, where we will use our worldwide expertise to help the city's competitive talent pool and engage meaningfully with local and global communities. Our Mohali office will be a center of excellence to Salesforce Development and Implementation Services. I am excited to persevere with our growth in India, and Mohali's plethora of talent made it an easy option for our next location."

Ajay also remarked that all their offices would complement one another in terms of execution and provide support to global enterprises, resulting in India's top CRM Development firm. He believes that Cloud Analogy has been successful in positioning itself on the Salesforce Development Platform. As a result, the company has maintained constant growth precisely because its prospects are bright and promising.

Somya Tyagi, the Chief Operating Officer of Cloud Analogy, said, "Cloud Analogy is thrilled to announce the official opening of our Mohali office. The new entity and new location altogether will act as a critical innovation base for various of our services while also enhancing our global brand. In addition, we are very excited about the tremendous potential for new business and recruitment that Mohali presents."

Nitish Bhardwaj, the Chief Information Officer of Cloud Analogy, said, "Cloud Analogy's continuous commitment to their work is laudable. Our vision to creating an inclusive workplace paired with the aim to provide measured and exceptional service has given us the enviable reputation we enjoy today. With this new office in Mohali, we will be able to expand the scope of our solutions and services in the Salesforce environment."

Akshay Dhiman, the Chief Technical Officer of Cloud Analogy, remarked, "The official launch of our Mohali office is something we are really excited about. It's a huge step for the company to create a third office in a new city. This was only possible due to Ajay's vision and a strong ambition to expand the business's structure. We are excited about the new potential for recruitment and new business that Mohali presents."

"We are confident that our growth will improve the quality and efficiency of our already excellent Salesforce Development services. Cloud Analogy can now provide even more tailored Salesforce services to its clients regardless of where they are situated, thanks to its two-front presence in India along with United States, Australia, and the United Kingdom," added Akshay.
