Get to know Internist Dr. Laura N. Hildebrant, who serves patients in New Jersey.

New York, New York City, Aug 19, 2021 (IssueWire.com) - A trusted internist, Dr. Hildebrant joined Montgomery Internal Medicine Group in December of 2008, seeing patients at their offices in Princeton and Hillsborough.

Montgomery Internal Medicine Group's team of physicians has more than 100 years of combined experience. They give the close, individual attention each patient wants without sacrificing the professional quality one has come to expect.

A graduate of Cornell University, Dr. Hildebrant earned her Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine degree from the New York College of Osteopathic Medicine. Completing an internship at Good Samaritan Hospital, she joined the internal medicine residency program at North Shore University Hospital.

As a testament to her continued education, she is board-certified in internal medicine by the American Osteopathic Board of Internal Medicine (AOBIM). The AOBIM is an organization that provides board certification to qualified Doctors of Osteopathic Medicine who specialize in the prevention, diagnosis, and treatment of disease in adults.

Among her other roles, Dr. Hildebrant has medical privileges to treat patients at Penn Medicine Princeton Medical Center and Morristown Medical Center.

Internal medicine is the medical specialty dealing with the prevention, diagnosis, and treatment of adult diseases. Physicians specializing in internal medicine are called internists. They manage and prevent common and complex diseases by providing comprehensive care and promoting overall well-being.

Throughout her illustrious career, Dr. Hildebrant has been the recipient of various awards and honors, including the Patients' Choice Award (2015, 2014, 2013, 2011, 2009, 2008), Compassionate Doctor Recognition (2015, 2014, 2013), and On-Time Doctor Award (2014).
