

Nitin Patkar – An Emerging Artist On The Hindi Music Horizon and YouTube

Now-a-days you are seeing that social media of India is ahead of the rest of the countries. And one of the biggest and most successful social media of this India is a very famous person on social media, who is from a small village Srinagar of UP.

music, hails from a small village in the Mahoba district. Nitin first created his YouTube channel in 2018, although on this channel Nitin and his friends together made and uploaded comedy videos. Even after uploading about fifteen to twenty videos on this channel, there was no increase in their views. After seeing all this, they all closed this channel. After a full year, again in 2019, Nitin gathered all his friends and asked them to upload a video on music. All the friends agreed with Nitin and started shooting for that video. About two weeks later, the music video was published on YouTube, based on Sumit Goswami's song "Yaar Purane". When this video was published on YouTube, this video got a very good response. In three to four days, this video completed one thousand views. But after a few days, everyone got separated again due to the board paper. This second start also went to waste for this channel and this channel got closed forever.

Now the year 2020 had arrived. This year also started passing like every year. Now the time has come April 2020, it was time when the whole world was troubled by the havoc of the Corona Virus. But to fulfill his previous unfulfilled dream, Nitin again started fulfilling his dream by creating a new YouTube channel. Nitin publishes music videos, animated videos with new and old songs and with new music on this YouTube channel. Nitin published videos on this channel non-stop. Now a lot of viewers were also increasing on Nitin's channel. Then Nitin published the song "Mere Samne Wali Khidiki Mein". Nitin got a very good response on this and the result was that this video crossed one lakh in just one week. This music video gave Nitin's career a boost. Reached a lot of heights. Nitin is still working for his life to achieve more progress and heights. Even today Nitin has been continuously publishing music videos on his channel.
