

Talented Rapper's New Project "Fire On Fire" Gains More Momentum After 7 weeks of release

See positive feedback from listeners on the rap project making waves

California, Los Angeles, Aug 27, 2021 (IssueWire.com) - Born in the slums of the south, but raised in the metropolis of Detroit (The home of Motown, MotorCity). Dutch 3Times is a mash-up of sounds from his surroundings and the world around him. The rapper claims that all his sounds are influenced by all of the great rappers that came before him, as well as all of the best music from all genres.

In his early thirties, he debuted in the industry with his "Sick of Love" EP, followed by his "Fire on Fire" EP, which contained summer 2021 party music.

The "Fire on Fire" EP Project contains five songs. With the intro song titled "I'm the man", which listeners claimed to have a unique "gangster" vibe to it, this intro is quickly followed by the second song which is named after the project "Fire on Fire", making it one that listeners are immediately attracted to on view.

"Fire on Fire" has won the hearts of various listeners, as they claim to leave it on repeat after listening. The "Fire on Fire" fan on Soundcloud said, "have to put it on repeat, my baby".

With other tracks like "Purchase it", "Head Gone", and the last track "30 G's", the "Fire on Fire" project displayed the ability of the artist to create his sounds in a unique way that was different from everyone else while being influenced greatly by rappers before him.

The Rapper, Dutch 3Times insists on being a writer first and a performer second, and he enjoys adding his own flair into all genres and forms of music. "Everything is done on a per-vibe basis."
