Indiana, Gary, Aug 8, 2021 (Issuewire.com) - During the celebration of World Civility Day on July 8, 2021, in Gary, Indiana, Dr. Christine Kozachuk, Founder of Every Girl Win's Institute, HRH Clyde Rivers Founder of iChangeNations, and International Every Girl Wins South Sudan Representative Nyamal Dei awarded the first iChangeNations Dr. Christine Kozachuk Her Right Award to Dr. Chuck Hughes and Dr.

Gordan Bradshaw, founders of Community Civility Counts and World Civility Day.

They were awarded this award because they appreciate that we all deserve freedom and equity worldwide from birth till death. Their character, commitment, and integrity towards her rights are transforming the rights of females around the world.

World Civility Day was established in 2015. They fought every day to have World Civility Day, and their initiative Community Civility Counts was recognized in the state of Indiana. On July 8, 2021, The Governor of Indiana signed their proclamation for Community Civility Counts for the entire state of Indiana.

HRH Clyde Rivers states, “They are leaders of change in the landscape of America. A breath of fresh air for nations.”

Dr. Chuck Hughes states, “I am honored to receive such a prestigious award. Being a husband and a father of three daughters, it truly warms my heart to know that there are people out there who demonstrate that their lives matter.”

Dr. Gordan Bradshaw states, “As the Co-Founder of Community Civility Counts and World Civility Day, I am extremely honored and elated to receive this prestigious award! Dr. Kozachuk and the work she is doing to bring opportunity, honor, and respect to women and girls is so extremely important to the welfare of the entire planet. What a great way to celebrate civility and make an impact around the globe. Thank you, Dr. Kozachuk, for this great honor and privilege! We hope to do more to help in this great endeavor!”
