

Upcoming Artist Hailey Livingston Presents a Soundscape of Rich Musical and Lyrical Progressions

Pop and hip hop artist Hailey Livingston is presenting a captivating musical course enriched with some of the best contemporary virtues of urban poetry and more.

Los Angeles, Aug 23, 2021 (Issuewire.com) - Music artist Hailey Livingston is presenting the best melodic poetry with her hip hop, pop, and R&B-inspired soundscape. Her singles exemplify her superior songwriting skills alongside a compelling production. Her single, 'TOXIC SEASON is a beautiful, subtle, and mellow melodic verse accompanying the guitar and the artist's creative thirst in an acoustic marriage. She is a charismatic soul who expresses her inner voice through her tremendous song-writing skills that portray urban poetry with the right balance and rebellion. The track is inspirational in many ways allowing young girls and boys to move on from toxic relationships and towards their true destinies.

Continuing her poetic emulsion, the artist traveled to North California and collaborated with rapper Yung Tomorrow on two new tracks, 'LAUNCHING PAD' and 'FIREFLIES'. The poet-turned singer and songwriter puts her spontaneity into the songs and together, they create two of the most dynamic tracks out there. According to the artist, her art and soundscape stand as a channelized output of a heartbreak. This is inspiring as well as she moves forward to accomplishing her dreams as an artist and that too within a small span. Associated with the recording label Prismatic Entertainment, the Los Angeles-based singer is just starting to spread out her wings, one single at a time.

Hip hop, pop, and R&B artist Hailey Livingston's musical horizon are based across all genres. But she specifically credits the works of Bob Dylan and Paul Simon to be the most inspirational to her. Among her upcoming works, she is reuniting with the producer Ferguson who also produced her first album, CLAP BACK. The duo is collaborating on a new song that will be out very soon. Some of her other songs include 'EARTHQUAKES HEADACHES & HEARTACHES', 'EDNA MODE', 'LOVE REFUND', and 'MACARONI & CHEESE'.
