

Bailey Perrie Finds Her Way Out Of The Dark

With Her Emotional New Song

Western Australia, Perth, Sep 23, 2021 (IssueWire.com) - New Release from Bailey Perrie out 21st September.

My Way Out Of The Dark is an emotional song about the acknowledgment of the great things that someone has done for you, but you didn't realize it at the time.

It is a Pop Ballad performed with just piano and vocals.

This video was shot at The West Australian Ballet and was sponsored by Spoil Yourself Gowns.

Bailey Perrie is a singer-songwriter from Western Australia with a clean pop style that carries country and rock undertones. Performing for prestigious Perth venues including RAC Arena, The Royal Show, and Optus Stadium, music has been the fuel to her fire since she began writing at just 11 years old.

Since her first release in 2017: 'Step by Step', Bailey's coming-of-age catalogue has grown tremendously, charting on Tiger FM89.9, and Banks Radio in Australia. Bringing her great strength in acting and dance into music videos that compliment each release, Bailey currently stacks up 359k collective views on YouTube.

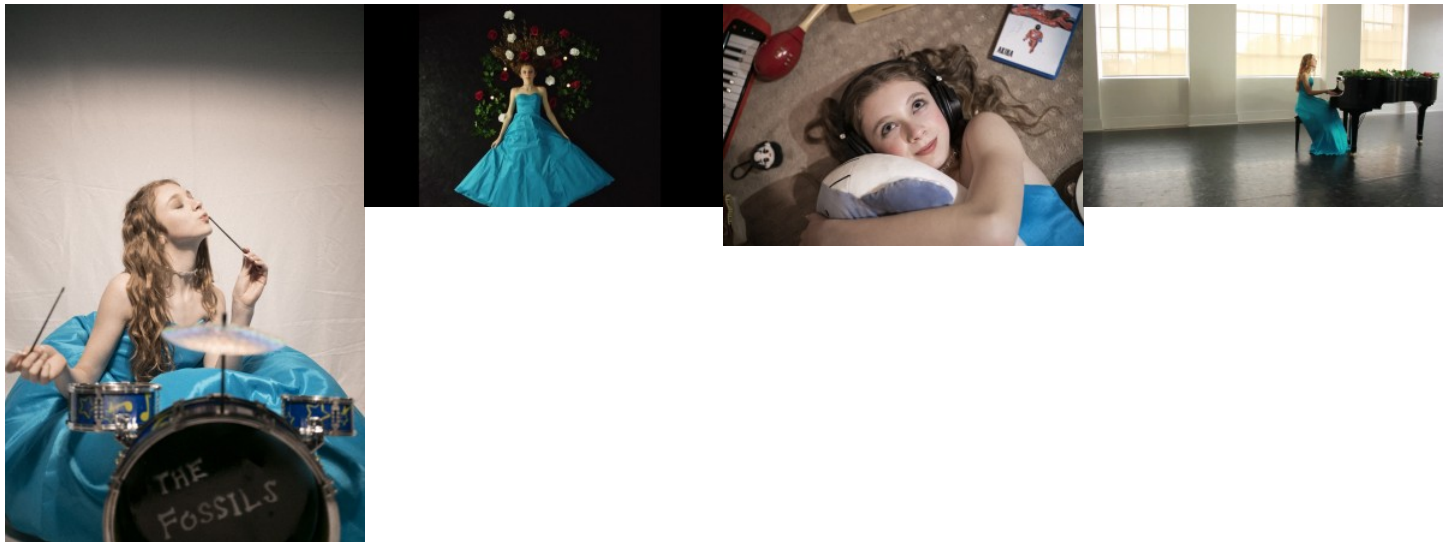

The discography of Bailey Perrie continues to grow from strength to strength with new music releasing every 6 weeks. Make sure you save the songs you like, add them to your playlists, and follow Bailey Perrie in the meantime
