

Rayyan Siddiqui debuts as India's youngest creative producer with the release of 'Client No. 7'

ULLU ORIGINALS

CLIENT NO 7

Uttar Pradesh, Noida, Sep 7, 2021 (IssueWire.com) - The Popularity of various OTT platforms and web series has provided an ideal opportunity for young, creative producers in India to showcase their talent. Production is no longer restricted to the traditional cinema or TV channels and this opens up a lot of avenues for upcoming producers to show their work to the world.

One such rising name in the Production industry is Rayyan Siddiqui. Rayyan is India's youngest creative producer and his debut production "Client No.7" has premiered on Ullu Originals.

Client, No 7 web series is getting many positive reviews from viewers and critics. Rayyan's debut production project features well-known stars including Leena Jumani, Ashmit Patel, Sumit Manak, Parvesh Kumar, Tariq Jamal, and others. Co-produced by Raeela Tariq and Narender Kumar.

Ashmit Patel is a popular Bollywood actor and a big boss participant. Leena Jumani is also an established actress, having done many popular TV and web series. The series is full of suspense and lots of twists and turns, making it popular among both Indian and global audiences. Various celebrities from the film and entertainment industry have also complimented Rayyan's work over their individual Instagram and Facebook accounts.

Rayyan Siddiqui is an 18 years old young artist and he is born in Allahabad. Rayyan just completed 12th from Father Agnel School, Noida. Rayyan's involvement in the film industry started in 2016. He feels very lucky himself that his parents supported him in every step of his life. He also added, "I am very lucky that I got a chance to get mentored by industry professionals, their suggestions helped me a lot. "

"I feel blessed to be working as a Creative Producer with some of the most talented stars and professionals from my first project itself. Film-making holds a great world of creative opportunities, using reality as clay to sculpt thoughts. I believe that the only thing that connects us as people are bare emotions, little everyday moments that are as universal as they are specific. Production and direction give me a great opportunity to touch the human soul.", says Rayyan

Rayyan is also a co-founder of Enreel Films & Entertainment and also produced many projects earlier. Enreel Films & entertainment is based in Delhi and works with various artists and production houses for talent management, film production, story writing, and film direction projects.

Rayyan's approach towards production is fresh, which allows him to push his creative boundaries and present his story in a unique and engaging banner.

Rayyan is working on multiple projects with some of the most talented stars, including making his debut as a Film director for his first comedy-drama feature film and shooting will be done in Haswa, Fatehpur. This project will be under the banner of Enreel Films & Entertainment and Production will be managed by Suraj Upadhyay. The official announcement is expected soon.

"I like pushing the boundaries of creativity and film production – I feel constant challenges are the most motivating force for any creative individual. If you have the passion, commitment towards your goal and you surround yourself with the right talent, you can make a mark for yourself in your respective field.", says Rayyan.
