Get to know Certified Registered Nurse Anesthetist, Regina D. Canty, who serves patients in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

New York, New York City, Sep 3, 2021 (IssueWire.com) - Regina is a certified registered nurse anesthetist currently serving patients at Temple University Hospital. She finds this profession challenging but very rewarding, attributing her success to putting God first and her love of people and her community.

Temple University Hospital is a nationally respected academic medical center that offers high-quality care, the latest technology, and skilled staff – all on a safe, easy-to-reach campus. Although surrounded by modern equipment and state-of-the-art facilities, Temple physicians and staff never lose sight of what is most important – patients and their families. This personalized approach to care makes the hospital a true medical home for hundreds of thousands of patients each year.

Fortunate to work with a great team and have a great education, Regina obtained her Bachelor of Science in Nursing degree from Temple University in 1988. She then went on to earn her CRNA certification in 2012 and her Doctor of Nursing Practice degree in 2018.

In order to remain up to date in her field, she maintains a professional membership with the American Association of Nurse Anesthetists and the Sigma Theta Tau International Honor Society of Nursing.

A Certified Registered Nurse Anesthetist (CRNA) plays a crucial role in the success of a variety of medical procedures. They work in collaboration with surgeons, anesthesiologists, dentists, podiatrists, and other professionals to ensure the safe administration of anesthesia.

On a more personal note, Regina finds joy in serving her community through her beloved sorority, Delta Sigma Theta Sorority Inc. She cherishes time with her family and grandchildren and loves to travel.
