Get to know Internist Dr. Salvatore Pasquale, who serves patients in Croton on Hudson, New York.

New York, New York City, Sep 24, 2021 (Issuewire.com) - An extremely caring and attentive internist, Dr. Pasquale is an attending physician with CareMount Medical, seeing patients at their Croton on Hudson office in New York.

CareMount Medical is the largest independent multi-specialty medical group in the State of New York, providing comprehensive medical care of the highest quality to over 640,000 patients in more than 45 offices throughout Westchester, Putnam, Dutchess, Columbia, and Ulster counties and New York City. Founded in 1946 as Mount Kisco Medical Group, CareMount has grown from six physicians to over 600 physicians and advanced practice providers with over 40 specialties, making the group a seamless “one-stop-shop” for patients.

Before embarking on his professional journey, Dr. Pasquale received his medical degree from St. George's University School of Medicine in 1988. He then went on to complete his residency in internal medicine at St. Barnabas Hospital / New York Hospital Cornell Medical Center in 1992.

An expert in his field, he is board-certified in internal medicine by the American Board of Internal Medicine (ABIM). The ABIM is a physician-led, non-profit, independent evaluation organization driven by doctors who want to achieve higher standards for better care in a rapidly changing world.

Holding a license to practice medicine in New York, Dr. Pasquale is affiliated with Hudson Valley Hospital Center, Phelps Memorial Hospital Center, and Northern Westchester Hospital Center.

Internal medicine is the medical specialty dealing with the prevention, diagnosis, and treatment of adult diseases. Physicians specializing in internal medicine are called internists. They manage and prevent common and complex diseases by providing comprehensive care and promoting overall well-being.
