

Shyanne : Comes Correct With Her Latest Smash Hit Single

California, Los Angeles, Sep 27, 2021 (Issuewire.com) - Shyanne Wilson, who simply goes by “Shyanne” is an on-the-rise superstar from Nashville. She makes hypnotizing R&B music that also adds hints of pop to create a modern twist. As she produces these versatile hits, her unique style is what makes Shyanne stand out as a powerful female artist. She draws influence from a diversified musical background, such as Prince, Black Eyed Peas, Lauryn Hill, Pink, Queen, and Bob Marley just to name a few.

Music has always been in her blood. She started songwriting at the young age of 10 and has not stopped since. “Get A Life” was the first-ever song she wrote and recorded that would begin her musical journey. The video for the song racked in over 250k+ views in a short time on YouTube, and it grew to be loved by many as the anthem empowered students who related to the anti-bully message. Seeing a positive power and the good she could do through music, Shyanne said she was hooked and knew this was her calling.

Shyanne has been blessed and lucky to have an amazing team beside her. She works with platinum producers including MXV (John Legend, T.I, Gunna, etc), Ogtha3 (Dave East, Yo Gotti, etc), JSuper (Street Symphony), and the list goes on. With each release and live show, Shyanne’s fan base continues to grow in numbers, racking up hundreds of thousands of streams independently from listeners of all ages all over the world. It’s safe to say her music is for all!

MXV and Shyanne have teamed up once again on her latest single “Come Correct” dropping September 25th with an awesome music video. This song is one for the books!

Shyanne embodies star quality and is a role model in the making. She wishes to influence and inspire all who listen to her music, but even those who don’t. She is a light to her peers and fans alike, and that is exactly what the world needs. Her work ethic, determination, and strong faith will take her to the top. Be sure to check out her latest single, “Come Correct”!
