Design AirPods have officially introduced the AirPods 3 Custom Case throughout the USA

Let's face it, these new AirPods thingies are an investment, and Apple's latest AirPods, the Gen 3, are not an easy purchase decision.

Fans upgrading have let us know that they're lining up for the newest standard AirPods 3, and sure they will be a big hit this Christmas, but it will be a more complex decision now to either buy the superior AirPods Pro or take the latest AirPods 3s for a long-term listen to save some bucks.

Do you wait for the Next-Gen AirPods Pro or go for a different brand altogether?

It all depends on what tech you're into, and thanks to Design AirPods, no matter what it is - there is a personal product just for you.

Design AirPods has a case for all AirPods Generations, along with most Samsung products and 100s of other custom choices for earphones, cell phones, chargers, and there are even universal phone grips made just for those of us with larger hands and digits.

Design AirPods are the cases for all Official Apple AirPods of every generation.

In other words, they are precisely made and laser cut for real AirPods to ensure the best fit and protection. If you've completed your new AirPods 3 purchase, you can now also add a fantastic and unique Design AirPods Case to match.
