

LilCee Moyeready brings something creative to the table with 'Dware'

LilCee Moyeready entitles his name as a profound hip-hop performer with the launch of his new video 'Dware' that offers the perfect rhythm to groove.

music world, Charles Nsiah, popularly known as LilCee Moyeready has traveled the farthest to get his presence felt in the hip-hop community by introducing sounds that are refreshing and engaging. The young artist is a Ghanaian German African rapper, songwriter, and musician who has showcased a lot of new moves, grooves, and rhythms with his catchy productions and shows no signs of slowing down anytime soon. The artist has garnered huge popularity in his hometown for playing catchy Afrobeat sound mixed with drill and hip-hop and is quickly rising to become a global sensation.

The artist has recently launched his new music video titled 'Dware' ft Areabwoy51 that is a result of fine art skills and improved sound. Combining Afrobeat rhythms with engaging lyrics, the track is driven to offer a good time to the audience and the accompanying video only enhances the listening experience throughout. From the very start, the artist gets on the scene with few others to narrate an engaging storyline. Decked up in black with a gold chain hung around his neck, the artist swings to the beats while maintaining a strong balance. The song caters to a broad audience base and even to those who are engaging with Afro-hip-hop for the first time. The music offers good vibes and talks about life on the street.

LilCee Moyeready has the potential to run it up the charts on his terms and the rapper is approaching to lead the scene with his unique hip-hop perspective. Back in 2019, the talented artist had released his composition 'Elaale' featuring Sonni Bali. Born in Kwadaso, Ashanti Region Ghana, the artist started composing music during his school days and grew up to set his career in music with the supports of friends and family. He has a great deal of potential which the prolific artist is slowly yet steadily unleashing with every new record. The new video 'Dware' is reviving the essence of raw hip-hop combined with hitting Afrobeats and the unique amalgamation is sure to draw the attention of the crowd immediately.
