Nagpur, Maharashtra Nov 2, 2021 (Issuewire.com) - DRE7MS, a feature-length film produced by AnuragJha Creations revealed their main poster on 3rd November 2021. Starring Anurag Jha, Bhuvansing Patle, Sushmita Dey, Yash Krishnani, Hemavaishnave, and Tushar Pandey in the prominent roles, the film is based on the emotion of grief.

The plot focuses on Saanjh, the lead protagonist who experiences a traumatic loss of a colleague, soon after the character starts seeing a mysterious girl in his dreams who takes him through the seven stages of grief. The role of the mysterious female has been kept a secret, as the first look of the film showcases a girl wearing a masquerade mask but isn't included in any of the character posters.

A week earlier there was a screening held for the same film where many actors were spotted. Actors like Ashutosh Ghonge, Kunal Tonge, Prajakta Duragkar are also in the film and were spotted with the lead cast. It is believed that the film will release on 21 December and the trailer is speculated to release on 10th November. The film will feature a total number of 7 songs including 4 soundtracks, AnuragJha Creations is known for its soulful music albums, it will be worth waiting to see what will they serve this time.

The film is a Hindi narrative set to serve the US/UK audience before releasing worldwide. Director Anurag Jha's previous projects like Tallukh and Teri Diwali Meri Christmas also followed the same release pattern and did well in terms of the box office collection.
