Get to know Urologist Dr. Manuel S. Eisenberg, who serves patients throughout the State of Arizona.

New York City, New York Nov 10, 2021 (Issuewire.com) - Dr. Eisenberg is a board-certified and fellowship-trained urologist with Ironwood Urology, seeing patients in Gilbert, Arizona. Ironwood Urology is a division of the Ironwood Cancer & Research Centers.

Specializing in the treatment of urologic diseases including cancer of the prostate, kidney, testicles, and bladder, he is versed in advanced robotic, laparoscopic, and open surgical techniques. This allows him to offer the optimal individualized treatment approach on a patient-by-patient basis.

Spending his career helping patients through the difficult time of a new diagnosis and treatment, Dr. Eisenberg seeks to make sure every patient understands their disease and the treatment options available to them. He ensures that every person can make an educated decision on what treatment best suits his or her individual needs.

The doctor has worked with leaders in the field of urologic cancer surgery as well as radiation and medical oncology. He believes in a multidisciplinary approach to give all patients the optimal treatments based on the stage of their disease and their personal preferences.

Dr. Eisenberg is also an expert in general urology, treating conditions such as benign prostatic hyperplasia, kidney stone disease, urinary problems, low testosterone, erectile dysfunction, and blood in the urine.

Back in the early days of his academic career, he graduated as a Regents Scholar from the University of California, Berkeley, and attended the University of California, San Francisco School of Medicine, where he earned his medical degree and was inducted into the Alpha Omega Alpha Honor Society.

Subsequently, Dr. Eisenberg completed his internship in general surgery at the University of Southern California/Los Angeles County Medical Center. He completed his residency in urology at the USC Institute of Urology, and completed a 2-year Society of Urologic Oncologist accredited fellowship in urologic oncology at the Mayo Clinic in Rochester, Minnesota.

Following his training, the doctor attained board certification in urology and urologic oncology through the American Board of Urology (ABU). The mission of the ABU is to act for the benefit of the public by establishing and maintaining standards of certification for urologists, and working with certified urologists to achieve lifelong learning to ensure the delivery of high quality, safe, and ethical urologic care.

Urology, also known as genitourinary surgery, is the branch of medicine that focuses on surgical and medical diseases of the male and female urinary-tract system and the male reproductive organs. Urologists specialize in diseases of the urinary tract and the male reproductive system. Patients may be referred to a urologist if their physician suspects they may need treatment for a condition relating to the bladder, prostate, urethra, ureters, kidneys, and adrenal glands.

Speaking multiple languages, Dr. Eisenberg is fluent in both English and Spanish.
