SaMoMusic

Irbil, Iraq Nov 18, 2021 (Issuewire.com) - Hossein Mohammadi, nicknamed SaMo Music, in Iran all People say hem Saman Mohammadi but he's international name SaMoMusic(Dj SaMo), was born in Iran and Rasht on 21/09/1990. He had a great interest in music as a child and opened his eyes to the artist's family. With a brilliant record in the National Orchestra, he learned cello with his mother as a child, and at a young age, he learned to sing with Master Mohammad Nouri. Since he had a strong interest in music, he began to learn guitar and piano on his own. He gradually developed these two instruments with the help of professors and friends. At the age of 25, he succeeded in making an instrument called Shahtour. This instrument is similar to the santor but covers more space and octave. His first official music was in his youth. It was made and played under the name of Al-Tamas, which made a lot of noise in those years. He later released four more songs, but because the playing distance was long (about a year apart), it was not heard much. And became a master, and later in the same years, he started his first studio called Ofogh. He has composed several songs and in His resume has collaborated with prominent singers such as Roozbeh Nematollahi, Masoud Saeedi, Ali ashabi, Bewar Izzet, and Arabic and Kurdish singers. He has a lot in his record[edit source] And so far in many TV programs such as dast to dast (Tehran television) and the mahe tamam (IRIB tv2), as well as many live performances in her record[edit source] and His journey, started at a very young age, followed by open his first-ever studio at the age of 17 and it was the time that he felt confident of his abilities as his set became an instant hit in the country that he used to live in and in Asian countries. Due to the lack of career options in his native country, Samo decided to move to Dubai, where his career took off and he had the chance to get introduced to famous DJs and producers. He now lives in Erbil and He will work in the inferno club from 2018 to now[edit source] In 2020, he make a new techno mix that he was looking for so long and officially started Techno, minimal, melodic techno by the name of techno show He takes pride in the fact that he can communicate with people on a spiritual level as soon as one of his set mixes are played and that is the thing that makes him stand out in the ever saturated crowd of DJs
