Background

Funds Raised Will Be Directed To An Expansion Of A Small Animal Rescue Shelter That Isidoro Negrete Reynoso And His Wife Susanna Operate, And Other Projects Operated By Existing Shelters Or Veterinarians In Mexico City That Support Medical Treatment, Neutering, And Feeding and Shelter In Ways That Can Make A Sustainable Difference. Causes Recommended By Our Performers Or Our Strong Fans Are Given Priority In Assessment.

Almost all of the funds raised at the event will stay in Mexico City. Typically 75 percent of funds raised will be allocated to local projects and the remainder to support projects in other parts of Mexico where no Fest is held. In the case of December 11, 50 percent of the funds raised will be allocated to the expansion of a small Shelter operated by Susan Hernandez and supported by our Honored Guest Isidoro Negrete Reynoso, her husband. Approximately 30 percent will be awarded to other worthy projects, new or existing in the Mexico City region.

Tequila Rock 'n Blues Explosion Fests, in conjunction with many more big-hearted big talent performers from Mexico, Canada, the USA, and elsewhere, will continue with an active Festival Plan for Mexico throughout the winter of 2022. Supporting tourism and offering tourism destination events and continuing to support Street Animal Rescue in each community that events are held.

“We want to do more for the Cause(s) we support, for Tourism, so we greatly expanded the number of weekend Festivals we are holding for 2021-22”, said Rempel.

Since 2018 when they started holding Rock 'n Blues Festivals in just Ixtapa-Zihuatanejo, Mexico, and one previous event in Mexico City. Rempel said small profits from each event and generous fan donations have combined to raise close to 200,000 pesos at our events. All funds have been donated to the community at this point, with Covid 19 pandemic interrupting the fundraising. We have supported a children's orphanage in our early years, now our Cause is Street Animal Rescue work for 2021 & 2022. Events are not for profit, and all organizers are volunteers.

Quotes:

Isidoro Negrete Reynoso said, 'I am honored for the recognition of my music and work in blues and rock in Mexico for the past 50 plus years from the Tequila Rock 'n Blues Explosion organizers and their fans, but equally important to me and wife is that we will try to do something important and try to make a difference in the lives of the street animals of Mexico City and Mexico. This is something my wife Susanna and I have made a priority for us too in our lives in the past years. It's a win-win day for us”

Fest Organizer Bob Rempel, of Tequila Rock 'n Blues Explosion Events & Fests who have created the Animales Angeles Fund, and has Mexico permanent resident status, said, “Our fun events are for a Cause always and we are unique that way. This Cause is as important as any other in our opinion. There are millions of abandoned & homeless street animals of Mexico City & Mexico some born on the streets. It is a serious problem. Worldwide, but it appears from reports that the problem in Mexico is even greater. We believe animal lovers and everyone else with an open mind who will take a few moments to see what is happening on the streets will all agree.”
