echoVME Digital, Leading digital marketing agency in Chennai

Chennai, Tamil Nadu Dec 17, 2021 (IssueWire.com) - echoVME Digital, a well-established digital marketing agency in Chennai, extending services worldwide. Earlier this year, they completed 11 successful years in the field of digital marketing. The agency was founded by Sorav Jain, one of India's leading digital marketers and Instagram Influencers. Under the able leadership of Sorav, the agency offers 360 digital marketing services to established brands across an array of industries.

Throughout their 10 years in the field, team echoVME has helped several brands establish a strong digital foundation and realise their digital marketing goals.

Sorav Jain - Founder-CEO, echoVME Digital

Sorav Jain began his career when he was just 17, as an SEO executive. He graduated from Loyola College and earned a Master's degree in International Marketing Management from Leeds University Business School. Thanks to his unending passion for digital marketing, he was able to quickly learn the art, science, and tricks associated with a field and founded echoVME, which would go on to become one of the country's leading digital marketing agencies in a span of 10 years.

Sorav believes that 'Digital marketing is all about practice as a digital marketing aficionado.' He insists this to both his team at echoVME as well as his students, inspiring them to push their limits in learning more about the field. Sorav has spent over 10 years in the digital marketing field and is today also a published writer with 4 books to his credit. He is also a digital marketing consultant, trainer, and keynote speaker. Social Samosa listed him as one of the top Social Media Marketers under 30. He has also been awarded the 'Top 25 Social Media Professionals of India' title by the Global Youth Forum.

Sorav, being a passionate teacher, established Digital Scholar, as an educational extension of echoVME, in 2019. Intending to bridge the employee-student gap in the digital marketing field, Digital Scholar has successfully trained over 2,800 digital marketing professionals.
