New York City, New York Dec 13, 2021 (Issuewire.com) - Get to know Internist Dr. Gregory Collins, who serves patients throughout the State of New Jersey.

A seasoned internist, Dr. Collins is the Chief Medical Officer and Vice President of Southern Jersey Family Medical Centers, serving patients in the Atlantic City, English Creek, and Pleasantville areas.

The mission of Southern Jersey Family Medical Centers (SJFMC) is to provide and promote effective, culturally proficient, high-quality primary, secondary, specialty, preventive, behavioral health, and dental care services for residents and migrant seasonal farmworkers in Southern Jersey regardless of their ability to pay and to eliminate barriers to care based upon race, religion, ethnicity, sex, gender, national origin, and residential status. They will provide this care in a competent, compassionate, and empathetic manner.

Back in the early days of his academic career, Dr. Collins earned his medical degree from Rutgers Robert Wood Johnson Medical School in 1991. He completed his residency in internal medicine at Overlook Medical Center in 1995.

Passionate about his profession, the doctor is board-certified in internal medicine by the American Board of Internal Medicine (ABIM). The ABIM is a physician-led, non-profit, independent evaluation organization driven by doctors who want to achieve higher standards for better care in a rapidly changing world.

Internal medicine is the medical specialty dealing with the prevention, diagnosis, and treatment of adult diseases. Physicians specializing in internal medicine are called internists. They manage and prevent common and complex diseases by providing comprehensive care and promoting overall well-being.
