Get to know Dermatologist Dr. Jody A. Levine, who serves patients in New York, New York.

New York City, New York Dec 1, 2021 (IssueWire.com) - One of America's top dermatologists, Dr. Levine is the Director of Dermatology at Plastic Surgery & Dermatology of NYC, a leading medical and aesthetic practice in New York City. She is an expert in dermatology and dermatologic surgery, specializing in medical and surgical pediatric dermatology, as well as adult cosmetic dermatology and laser surgery.

Renowned for her keen diagnostic sense and comprehensive medical expertise, as well as her artistic eye, skilled hands, and wonderful bedside manner, it is no wonder that Dr. Levine is internationally recognized and one of the most respected dermatologists in the country. With an intuitive eye and deft touch, she helps patients achieve the most beautiful and natural-looking results. Her exceptional talent with lasers, BOTOX® and other neurotoxins, cosmetic injectable fillers, surgery, liposuction, hair transplant, and cosmeceuticals has created a wait-list of patients from around the world who trust only her handiwork.

Working alongside her husband, Dr. Elie Levine, a leading plastic surgeon, the doctor-duo combines the highest standards in dermatology and plastic surgery in New York to offer overall medical, surgical, and cosmetic care for the entire family. At Plastic Surgery & Dermatology of NYC, they provide a warm and nurturing environment to treat a full spectrum of conditions, ranging from minimal topical intervention to plastic surgery techniques. Their intertwining plastic surgery and dermatologic approach ensure that every patient receives comprehensive care for their cosmetic and health concerns.

What additionally sets Dr. Levine apart from other dermatologists is that she is a board-certified pediatrician as well as a board-certified cosmetic and surgical dermatologist, making her uniquely positioned to treat the entire family. She performs outpatient surgery and procedures for both adults and children in a state-of-the-art, in-office operating suite, which is accredited by the American Association for Accreditation of Ambulatory Surgery Facilities (AAAASF). She is also one of only a few dermatologists who hold hospital surgical privileges, allowing her to perform pediatric dermatologic surgery in a child-friendly, safe environment.

Namely, she is an Associate Adjunct Surgeon at The New York Eye and Ear Infirmary, and an Assistant Clinical Professor of Dermatology at The Mount Sinai Medical Center.

A graduate of Columbia College, Dr. Levine earned a 4.0 GPA and the distinctions of Phi Beta Kappa and Magna Cum Laude. She received her medical degree at the Yale School of Medicine, graduating with honors. She then went on to complete a residency in pediatrics at The Mount Sinai Medical Center, followed by a residency in dermatology and dermatologic surgery at SUNY Downstate Medical Center.

Well-respected and admired in her field, the doctor is board-certified in dermatology by the American Board of Dermatology (ABD). The ABD is a voluntary, non-profit, private, autonomous organization formed for the primary purpose of protecting the public interest by establishing and maintaining high standards of training, education, and qualifications of physicians rendering care in dermatology.

Furthermore, she is board-certified in pediatrics by the American Board of Pediatrics (ABP). The mission of the ABP is to advance child health by certifying pediatricians who meet standards of excellence and are committed to continuous learning and improvement.

Prior to co-founding Plastic Surgery & Dermatology of NYC, Dr. Levine worked in private practice in Manhattan, served as Head of Pediatric Dermatology at Montefiore Hospital in the Bronx, and was the Medical Director of a Brooklyn Medi-Spa.

In addition to being a Fellow of the American Academy of Dermatology (FAAD) and a Fellow of the American Academy of Pediatrics (FAAP), she is a member of the American Society of Dermatologic Surgery and the Society for Pediatric Dermatology.

A well-respected industry expert, Dr. Levine has served on the medical advisory board of Johnson & Johnson and continues to be a medical advisor for Parents magazine. She has served as a consultant to Dial, Algenist, Eucerin®, Mustela, and Cetaphil®. She also served as the brand dermatologist for Gillette® Venus® razors and serves as well as a luminary for Sciton and Cynosure® lasers.

Dermatology is the branch of medicine dealing with the skin, the largest organ of the body; a specialty with both medical and surgical aspects. A dermatologist is a specialist doctor who manages skin diseases and deals with both internal and external causes and some cosmetic concerns involving the skin. Dermatological duties include taking consultations, providing screening tests, and undertaking non-invasive surgical procedures.

With extensive knowledge of the most advanced aesthetic technologies and techniques, Dr. Levine is a beauty media favorite frequently quoted by national magazines, newspapers, and television programs. She has been recognized yearly as a Castle Connolly Top Doctor and a New York Times Magazine Super Doctor. She has also written scholarly papers in prestigious medical journals, including the Journal of the American Academy of Dermatology and the Journal of the American Medical Association.

On a more personal note, Dr. Levine resides in Manhattan with her husband and their five children, Skyler, Jasmine, Caitlin, William, and Jack.
