New York City, New York Dec 7, 2021 (Issuewire.com) - Dr. Weir is a board-certified hospitalist with Millennium Physician Group in Cape Coral, Florida. Specializing in hospital/inpatient services, his clinical interests include wellness and prevention.

Formed in 2008, Millennium Physician Group has grown into one of the largest comprehensive primary care practices with more than 500 health care providers located throughout Florida. Patients can trust that they will receive the very best in medical care from their highly skilled physicians and qualified staff members.

A native of England, Dr. Weir earned his medical degree from the United Medical and Dental Schools of Guy's and St. Thomas' Hospitals. After relocating to the United States, he completed his residency in internal medicine at the Boston University School of Medicine and his fellowship in sleep medicine at the Oregon Health and Science University.

An authority in his field, the doctor is board-certified in hospital medicine and internal medicine by the American Board of Internal Medicine (ABIM). The ABIM is a physician-led, non-profit, independent evaluation organization driven by doctors who want to achieve higher standards for better care in a rapidly changing world.

Hospital medicine is a medical specialty that exists in some countries as a branch of internal or family medicine, dealing with the care of acutely ill hospitalized patients. The primary focus is caring for hospitalized patients and co-management with other specialties. Hospitalists take an active part in medical care and ensure a safe discharge for the patients they take care of. They are being increasingly involved in administrative roles, given their expertise and collaboration with various teams in the hospital.

When he is not in the office, Dr. Weir enjoys cycling, charity fundraising, sailing, theatre, traveling, and tennis. Speaking several languages, he is fluent in English, French, and German.
