

What is the Global Umoja One Market Platform?

Dallas, Texas Dec 14, 2021 (Issuewire.com) - Anywhere, USA [December 14, 2021] IT specialist extraordinaire, Henry Kalume has partnered with Global business consultant, Jeanine Bunzigiye in a venture to bring products to the world under one revolutionary platform concept. The execution of Umoja One Market will set the world on fire.

Umoja means unity. This is significant since the Umoja One Market is The initial country that includes over 55 African Nations, France, Germany, Canada, and the USA. More will be added as the platform grows. “We want to bridge the gap between the east and west as it relates to business,” says founder Jeanine Bunzigiye of With You Solutions. She has seen firsthand how the current gap negatively affects businesses on both sides of the water.

Henry Kalume has worked with governments and notable businesses for over two decades. He uses his technical expertise in building the marketplace with his team because, “..it is necessary, what is needed and Jeanine saw a need and wants to help with a solution.” The two have worked hard to not only design a viable platform, but have partnered with others to help ensure the venture is beneficial for everyone. Including LJ Thomas of the Purely Positive Network.

The fact the services will be available alongside products on the same platform seems like a no-brainer. Yet, it has not been done on this scale. Umoja One Market is the first of its kind. Business owners o services, manufacturers, and more have a place to offer their wares. “This is more than just a store. This is truly a market,” says LJ Thomas. In addition, there are additional ways to get exposure, help with business plans, strategies, publicity, coaching, and more. All of these are in place to help the businesses and those who want to join the platform succeed.

A truly global market will be wildly popular. Space will fill quickly. To save your place on the Umoja One Market, contact info@wys-tec.com. The team will get back to you quickly with the next steps to secure your spot at an affordable cost for all.

A letter of acceptance will be sent to businesses that have secured their spot. Fashion designers, coaches, products, and services of all kinds are welcome. The team is looking forward to working with you. To get started, send an email to info@wys-tec.com.
