Get to know Pathologist Dr. Albert Njoroge Huho, who serves patients in Castleton, New York.

New York City, New York Jan 31, 2022 (IssueWire.com) - Well-versed in the field of pathology, Dr. Huho serves the community of Castleton, New York at his private practice.

Before embarking on his professional journey, he graduated with his medical degree from the University of Nairobi College of Health Sciences in Kenya in 1999. After relocating to the United States, he completed his residency in anatomic & clinical pathology at the Albany Medical Center in 2015, followed by a fellowship in hematopathology at the Baylor College of Medicine in 2016, and a fellowship in molecular genetic pathology at the University of New Mexico School of Medicine in 2017.

Subsequent to his education, the doctor attained board certification in anatomic & clinical pathology, hematopathology, and molecular genetic pathology through the American Board of Pathology (ABPath). The mission of the ABPath is to promote the health of the public and advance the practice and science of pathology by establishing voluntary certification standards and assessing the qualifications of those seeking to practice the specialty of pathology.

Pathology is a branch of medical science that involves the study and diagnosis of disease through the examination of surgically removed organs, tissues, bodily fluids, and in some cases, the whole body. Pathologists are physicians who specialize in the diagnosis and management of diseases by laboratory methods.
