New York City, New York Jan 17, 2022 (IssueWire.com) - A trusted pediatric neurologist, Dr. Watson sees patients at DMC Children's Hospital of Michigan Specialty Center - Detroit.

For nearly 130 years, the Children's Hospital of Michigan has been dedicated to providing high-quality care to children and adolescents in a caring, efficient and family-centered environment. A proud member of the Detroit Medical Center, the hospital, established in 1886, is the first and largest freestanding hospital in the state completely dedicated to serving children. This 228-bed facility has an international reputation in pediatric medicine, surgery, and research, training more pediatricians than any other facility in Michigan.

Pertaining to her educational pursuits, Dr. Watson graduated with her medical degree from the Wayne State University School of Medicine, and completed her residency in pediatric neurology at the Children's Hospital of Michigan. She also holds a Bachelor of Science degree from the University of Michigan at Ann Arbor.

Neurology is a branch of medicine dealing with disorders of the nervous system. Neurologists are licensed medical specialists who diagnose and treat disorders that affect the brain, spinal cord, nerves, and muscles of patients. A child neurologist, or pediatric neurologist, is a doctor who treats children who have problems with their nervous system. Problems in the nervous system can start in the brain, spine, nerves, or muscles. These can lead to problems such as seizures, headaches, or developmental delays.
