

Upcoming Rapper Chris Boonk Releases A Banging New EP 'CRIMSON!'

New York City, New York Jan 27, 2022 (Issuewire.com) - Rising Vermont prodigy and artist Chris Boonk has released a new EP, “Crimson!”, available on all music streaming platforms. Produced by Gibbo, Stardustszn, Starboyrob, Issa, and more including himself. The 18-year-old shows versatility tremendously in genres including Drill, EDM, R&B, and mainly Hip Hop throughout this whole piece of art.

“PTSD” was the first track released off of Chris Boonk’s ear-catching project. It hasn’t even been a month since its release and the track has already clocked almost 20,000 streams on SoundCloud. This is very impressive considering that Chris is a fully independent artist but has managed to garner an enormous amount of attention with a total of over 500,000 plays across all music platforms.

“I plan on signing a record deal in the future for sure!” says Chris, when we asked what his future goals were for music. Chris has been in the underground for a while now and it’s insane how professional the artist’s music sounds when it’s only been almost 3 years since he started rapping he says. Chris Boonk deserves all the accomplishments coming his way and is definitely an artist the world should prepare for!
