

Kendu Harrell: New York City Artist Full Of Ambition To Make It Within The Music Industry

Los Angeles, California Feb 28, 2022 (Issuewire.com) - Kendu Harrell is an on the rise hip hop recording artist from Brooklyn, New York. His musical inspiration comes from some of the industry greats such as Lupe Fiasco, Talib Kwali, J.Cole, Jay Z, and many others. His goal is to impact all that come in contact with his music. Music for Kendu has been a passion since his teenage years, but it became something more serious within the last couple of years. Creating poetry has helped him articulate and sculpt his style and wordplay. His flow is like no other as his sound is completely original and authentic. At the young age of 18 is when music became a real passion and potential career choice. His music speaks volumes as it's both catchy and relatable to all who listen to his content.

This year is about growth. Growing as an artist as well as a brand. Continuing to bring in new audiences and more attention. Kendu is unmatched and completely unique. Currently, he is working on an album titled " Me, Myself and Art". This album is his first debut album and definitely not his last. The goal is to become a household name and be known worldwide. This year is about growth and broadening his audience. He is a dedicated individual who seeks to remain innovative and inspirational throughout his journey. Make sure you check out his catalog, you will not be disappointed.

Media Contact

Kendu Harrell

Kenduharrell@gmail.com

Source : Kendu Harrell

See on IssueWire