

Kenneth Kremsky Holds an Inspiring Professional Experience

This Press Release is written to inform the readers that Kenneth Kremsky holds an inspiring professional experience.

Philadelphia, Pennsylvania Feb 21, 2022 (IssueWire.com) - Kenneth Kremsky, and affirmed Lean Six Sigma Black belt, is an exceptionally settled vital fund and bookkeeping mastery. He holds a broad preparation in Lean Six Sigma costing and budgetary investigation, and produced misfortune remittance reserve funds of ~$700K more than two years at Kraft Foods Group.

As the finance lead, he gave money-related investigation to the Kraft Austerity Group with the objective of lessening crude and bundling material misfortunes by 5% and decreasing fixed costs by 15%, which was accomplished. Kenneth works as a consultant for a private equity firm in Pennsylvania. He implements the new ERP accounting software and facilitates the A2R process for the acquisition of the company.

Kenneth Kremsky is specialized in Financial Planning and Analysis, SAP Usage, Strategy, Forecasting, Financial Reporting, Project Management, Process Improvements, Productivity, Strategic Business Planning, Operations, Business Metrics, Bench-Checking, Internal Controls, and Manufacturing Finance.

Talking about his professional experience, he filled in as an associate controller at Interstate Brands Corporation from 1996-to 1999. In 1999 he began filling in as director of cost accounting at Nabisco Inc where he worked until 2005. Afterward, Ken Kremsky began filling in as controller at Kraft Foods Inc in 2005.

About Kenneth Kremsky

Formerly working as the Controller and Strategic Analysis Manager at Kraft Foods Group from 2005 to 2012, Kenneth Kremsky managed all the accounting activities for the faculty, including the preparation of the annual operating budget, ensuring Sarbanes Oxley Compliance, and handling both internal and external audits. He was the Finance Lead for the SAP Catalyst Implementation Team.

Media Contact

Kenneth/Ken Kremsky

jon288@yopmail.com

Source : Kenneth Kremsky

See on IssueWire