Located on the corner of Marlton Avenue and Santa Rosalia Drive in the Marlton Square complex, the Baldwin Hills-Crenshaw Medical Offices brings convenient access to high-quality primary and specialty care services for members who live and work in the Crenshaw community. Approximately 60 world-class providers treat their members in technologically advanced exam rooms, equipped with the ability to conduct real-time virtual consults with other Kaiser Permanente providers throughout the region.

Pertaining to his educational pursuits, Dr. Farley earned his medical degree from the UCLA School of Medicine. He then went on to complete his internship and residency in family medicine at the Sutter Medical Center of Santa Rosa.

Subsequent to his education, the doctor attained board certification in family medicine through the American Board of Family Medicine (ABFM). The ABFM is a non-profit, independent medical association of American physicians who practice in family medicine and its sub-specialties.

Family medicine is a medical specialty devoted to comprehensive health care for people of all ages. The specialist is called a family physician or family doctor. A family physician is often the first person a patient sees when seeking healthcare services. They examine and treat patients with a wide range of conditions and refer those with serious ailments to a specialist or appropriate facility.

Among his most notable achievements, Dr. Farley has been the recipient of the Compassionate Doctor Recognition in 2016.
