Get to know Psychiatrist Stephen Ng, who serves patients in San Francisco, California.

New York City, New York Feb 15, 2022 (Issuewire.com) - A highly trained psychiatrist, Dr. Ng is affiliated with Sutter Health California Pacific Medical Center in San Francisco, California. He specializes in acute inpatient rehabilitation, spasticity management, spinal cord injury, stroke rehabilitation.

Sutter Health California Pacific Medical Center is one of the largest not-for-profit medical centers in California. At their four campuses located throughout San Francisco, they provide exemplary inpatient emergency and outpatient services, including specialized care for women and children, organ transplant programs, and innovative orthopedic treatments.

With a broad educational background, Dr. Ng earned his medical degree from the St. Louis University School of Medicine. He then went on to further his training by completing his internship at Highland Hospital, and his residency in physical medicine and rehabilitation at Stanford University.

Subsequent to his education, the doctor is board-certified in physical medicine & rehabilitation by the American Board of Physical Medicine and Rehabilitation (ABPMR). The mission of the ABPMR is to serve the public by improving the quality of patient care in physical medicine and rehabilitation (PM&R). This is accomplished through a process of certification and maintenance of certification that fosters excellence and encourages continuous learning.

Physical medicine and rehabilitation, also known as physiatry, is a branch of medicine that aims to enhance and restore functional ability and quality of life to those with physical impairments or disabilities. Physiatrists treat a wide variety of medical conditions affecting the brain, spinal cord, nerves, bones, joints, ligaments, muscles, and tendons.

An authority in his field, Dr. Ng has been the recipient of the Top Doctor Award by San Francisco Magazine (2015-2022).

On a more personal note, he is fluent in both English and Cantonese.
