Maniak Muggee releases his 3rd solo project

Carmichael, California Apr 1, 2022 (Issuewire.com) - Hip hop is by so far, the most eloquent music genre in the whole wide world. Seasoned rapper and songwriter Maniak Muggee is determined to showcase the greatness of the genre to global music lovers and convert them to become his followers with his extraordinary creations. He is all set to release a brand-new and his third solo project, 'Distance Deeper Than Space' on Friday, April 1st, on every major music streaming platform.

He has already been sharing sneak peeks of the project on his Instagram making the audience crave it even more. He proves why he is the epitome of versatility with the different rapping and rhythmic style he has used in the tracks of the project. The clever and eye-punching punchlines and wondrous metaphors will linger in the air provoking the minds of the listeners. Maniak Muggee presents a wonderful fusion of trap soul street love and heartache pain vibe in his upcoming music.

Based in New York, Maniak Muggee has been heavily influenced by legends like Lil Wayne, 50cent, K-Camp, Young Thug, Gunna, Dababy, Tory Lanez, and Drake. He has already earned a great reputation in the industry with his hit singles like 'Flashdance freestyle', 'Glitxhy', 'Patty Cake', and 'Push Pop'. Watch out for the project on Spotify, YouTube, SoundCloud, and more. Follow him on Instagram for more information.
