Divinópolis, Minas Gerais Mar 10, 2022 (Issuewire.com) - There are different beliefs of people about paranormal studies. If we have a look at the history of Brazil, Athos Salomé has become the leading name in the world of Parapsychology. Athos Salomé has over ten years of experience as a paranormal investigator and analyst, as well as professional parapsychology training. Unrestricted access to Athos Salomé's revelations will pique your interest, and authentic prophecies that are the reality of real-life events will pique your desire.

He is the youngest known paranormal investigator in Brazil, with ten years of experience and supernatural abilities from a young age. He takes great pleasure in assisting those around him. He's been the center of attention since he made several accurate predictions. One of them is his famously predicted pandemic outbreak in 2020, which he shared with a well-known pastor via Messenger in 2012. His paranormal research into the unexplained aspects of human experience has made him famous. As a result of his popular predictions, some people questioned his ancestry. People began to believe he was a descendant of Nostradamus, the well-known foreteller who was famous for his popular predictions.

Athos Salomé is considered to be the descendant of Baba Vanga. She was a Bulgarian mystic and herbalist, who died very early but had the power to make predictions. Though she was blind, before dying she left the predictions for every year. Athos Salomé holds a similar power of predictions and has predicted many things even before they hit the world. Athos has foreseen terrorism and, more importantly, the arrival of the Covid-19 pandemic. His name has also been linked to Baba Vanga, another seer known as the 'Nostradamus of the Balkans,' because of his predictions. He has been accused of being a fraud by internet trolls and non-believers in parapsychology, but Athos Salomé has proven them wrong. He wants people to understand the importance of his field and how it can be used to make the world a better place.
