Get to know Radiologist Dr. Robert V. Pham, who serves patients in Marietta, Georgia.

New York City, New York Mar 16, 2022 (IssueWire.com) - A board-certified radiologist with subspecialty expertise in musculoskeletal radiology, Dr. Pham has been in practice at Quantum Radiology since 2007.

Quantum Radiology sets the standard in medical imaging and is comprised of a team of sub-specialized physicians who leverage their experience and expertise to diagnose, treat, and care for patients' health.

They provide 24/7 radiology coverage for the WellStar Health System and interpret over 1.4 million exams annually at eight hospital locations and over 91 outpatient diagnostic centers, including multiple strokes and trauma centers.

A Phi Beta Kappa graduate of Emory University with a major in Biology, he received his medical degree and completed his residency in diagnostic radiology at Emory University, serving as Chief Resident. He obtained additional fellowship training in musculoskeletal radiology at the same educational venue and has a strong interest in degenerative and sports-related conditions.

An authority in his field, the doctor is board-certified in diagnostic radiology by the American Board of Radiology (ABR). The ABR is a not-for-profit physician-led organization that oversees the certification and ongoing professional development of specialists in diagnostic radiology, interventional radiology, radiation oncology, and medical physics.

On a professional level, Dr. Pham is an active member of the American College of Radiology, Radiological Society of North America, and the American Roentgen Ray Society.

Radiology refers to the field of medicine that uses non-invasive imaging scans to diagnose a patient. A radiologist is a physician who uses imaging methodologies to diagnose and manage patients and provide therapeutic options.
