New York City, New York Mar 18, 2022 (IssueWire.com) - A board-certified and fellowship-trained ophthalmologist, Dr. Glatzer is in practice at Delray Eye Associates, PA, and Fort Lauderdale Retina Institute. Widely recognized for his expertise and excellent surgical skills, he has been performing retina and vitreous eye surgery in South Florida for more than 30 years. His clinical interests include macular and retinal vascular disease and diabetic retinopathy.

Delray Eye Associates are an elite team of fellowship-trained physicians who have been providing care to the South Florida community for over forty years. They have decades of experience treating refractive errors, cataracts, corneal problems, glaucoma, macular degeneration, cosmetic issues, neuro-ophthalmic issues as well as many other ocular diseases. They offer a state-of-the-art facility to provide outstanding, ethical, and honest care using the most modern and effective methods of diagnostic testing and treatment.

Fort Lauderdale Retina Institute is proud to have four esteemed board-certified retina specialists, two locations, and a highly trained caring staff. The practice is the retina division of Fort Lauderdale Eye Institute, which has been serving the area for over thirty-five years. Their physicians are committed to focusing on meeting the needs of each one of their patients as well as referring doctors.

Born in Fairfield, Connecticut, Dr. Glatzer obtained his Bachelor of Arts degree in Chemistry at the University of Vermont, where he graduated with the highest honors, being elected to Phi Beta Kappa. He received his medical education at the New York Medical College and completed his medical internship at the Long Island Jewish Medical Center. He then went on to serve his residency in ophthalmology and his fellowship in the retina and vitreous diseases and surgery at the prestigious New York Eye and Ear Infirmary.

Passionate about his profession, the doctor is board-certified in ophthalmology by the American Board of Ophthalmology, an independent, non-profit organization responsible for certifying ophthalmologists in the United States of America.

On a professional level, he is an active member of the American Academy of Ophthalmology, the American Society of Retina Specialists, the Broward County Medical Association, the Florida Medical Association, the Miami Ophthalmologic Society, and the Broward County Ophthalmology Society.

Ophthalmology is a branch of medicine and surgery, that deals with the diagnosis and treatment of eye disorders. Ophthalmologists are experts in the diseases, functions, and anatomy of the eye. Ophthalmologists are also surgeons. They repair traumatic injuries to the eye and may perform cataract, glaucoma, and corneal surgery.

Recognized in the American Society of Retina Specialists' Hall of Fame, Dr. Glatzer has been the recipient of the Best Doctors in America Award and was among the 100 Best Physicians by South Florida Magazine.
