"Insights for Living Beyond The Badge"

BOWIE, MD, March 31, 2022. Enlighten law enforcement professionals understand there is much more to life than the uniform and badge. Our Vision is to educate aspiring law enforcement professionals, to serve the community and to provide supportive consultation to organizations with uncompromising quality and genuine care.

This summit supports the wholeness of the women in law enforcement. Our presenters will offer awareness and strategies for Providing Healing, Promoting Hope and Protecting The Home.

The presenters represent diverse agencies (Federal, State, County, Municipalities, and Special), diverse experience levels (Executive, Management, Street and Special Units) and diverse perspectives (Family, Single, No Family where they work, or No Friends outside of work).

This powerful gathering will share valuable lessons learned through their failures and triumphs. Those considering the law enforcement profession, newly assigned members, as well as experienced veterans should seriously consider attending.

All COVID-19 restrictions and safety practices will be in place during this event.

Greater Upper Marlboro, Maryland Mar 29, 2022 (IssueWire.com) - The International Council of Women in Law Enforcement presents an amazing opportunity for women to gather, grow, and serve together.

The International Council of Women in Law Enforcement brings forth an event that will present an opportunity to celebrate the contributions of all women to the field of law enforcement in various capacities. There will be panels on various topics pertaining to the challenges and rewards of women and policing.

In addition to this one-day conference, we ask that you support our community policing "Its In The Bag" initiative.

This initiative involves contributing a new or gently used handbag filled with women's health and beauty essentials. These bags will be donated to a local charity.

The International Council of Women in Law Enforcement

The organizer of Women in Law Enforcement Summit 2022

The International Council of Women in Law Enforcement (ICWLE) is a women's law enforcement group formed in order to give women a safe and nurturing space to network and an opportunity to Gather, Grow and Go. The ICWLE offers educational opportunities, consultation support, and many avenues of community service.

The ICWLE further seeks to provide consistent meeting opportunities for fraternal organizations that are female-focused and/or sensitive to the needs of Women in Law Enforcement.
