Lafayette, Louisiana Apr 11, 2022 (Issuewire.com) - The emerging artist Cameron Seaton has offered his debut number 'Hold a Feeling'. He has infused his rapping styles with the R&B genre, elevating the overall musical experience. The song will release on his twentieth birthday on 23rd May at midnight on all major music streaming platforms. He has worked with Lucas Mclaughlin also known as LUCASQUINN to produce this track. LUCASQUINN is known as he has been positively remarked by one of the most popular critics Anthony Fantano for his works with renowned artist Quadeca. And Mclaughlin has worked with prominent artists like Russ. The heartfelt lyricism of the song will remain with this music industry delivered so beautifully by his eccentric musical voice. His music is relatable for anyone mentally and spiritually.

This song is about his girlfriend, who is leaving for college. The lyrics describe that he is sad yet he is looking forward hopefully that what the future has for them. Cameron Seaton is from Lafayette Louisiana in the U.S.A. and started his career in 2014. Initially, he wrote poetry as an eleven-year-old. But no sooner, he was presented with a guitar and that is when he started writing songs. When he was just fourteen years old, he started his music career as a songwriter and a guitarist. Till 2020, he was completely engulfed by the charming natures of the country genre and thought that he will only proceed in this genre in the future.

But in 2020 along with the worldwide pandemic he found his passion and admiration for rap and the R&B genre. And the debut song of Seaton 'Hold a Feeling' will always be this magnetic and charming for the sheer magic of it. The real and the heartfelt writing of this song have made it more passionate. The widely relatable verses powerfully performed by his ecstatic voice along with some well-composed consuming tunes have made the song levitating for the audience. His oscillating emotional journey is written in vivid and powerful words that go right to the heart of the listeners. His music is available on his official website along with all the major music streaming platforms including Spotify. You can also follow him on Facebook and Instagram.
