

ServicePlus Home Warranty Has Come Up with Exciting Deals

Edison, New Jersey Apr 25, 2022 (Issuewire.com) - We all know that a home warranty has become an inevitable part of the home purchasing process. And it gives consumers some peace of mind that if anything goes wrong with the covered items, the company will repair or replace them subject to the terms and conditions.

A lot of people still misunderstand home warranty plans with home insurance. “Home insurance is a completely different investment plan as it typically covers the personal belongings or structural damages to the home due to theft, fire, hailstorm and other natural disasters.” David Seruya, the CEO of ServicePlus Home Warranty, said, “home insurance is a must for the people who have a mortgage, but a home warranty plan is always an optional investment for consumers.”

Many consumers still find the home warranty plans to be an additional expense for them and keeping this thing in mind, ServicePlus Home Warranty offers 2 free months with the purchase of any single payment plan and $200 off on all home warranty plans. Both the offers apply to the annual plans only.

“What makes us different than other competitors in the market is that we strongly focus on delivering customer-dedicated services,” said David Seruya. “Most home warranty companies do not disclose their terms and conditions clearly to their customers prior to purchasing and this is exactly where we are changing the game in the market.”

Presently, ServicePlus Home Warranty is offering a Veteran sale for the war veterans where this company is providing $200 straight off with 2 free months. ServicePlus Home Warranty has already got featured on CNN, HGTV, ESPN, Fox News, and NFL Network.

The two key advantages of buying a home warranty policy from ServicePlus Home Warranty are that it can help you stop worrying about the costly repairing or replacement of your home's covered appliances and mechanical systems.

Secondly, this company offers comprehensive plans covering most of your essential home appliances and systems.

ServicePlus Home Warranty offers a claims hotline service that is available 24 hours a day, 7 days a week, 365 days a year which assigns a qualified local technician from the network to diagnose the customers' issues and offer the best solution.
