

Interview with Md Ashraf Malik, the Founder & CEO of Digital Rain

Bareilly, Uttar Pradesh Jun 1, 2022 (IssueWire.com) - Md Ashraf Malik (Born 12 August 1993 in Bareilly, Uttar Pradesh, India) is an Indian entrepreneur, author, blogger, and digital marketer. He is the founder and CEO of Digital Rain, a popular digital marketing blog and IT company in Bareilly, India. He is an experienced marketer and digital influencer who believe in making digital simple for others.

Interview with 28 years old entrepreneur Md Ashraf Malik, the chief executive officer and founder member of a popular digital marketing blog and an IT company, Digital Rain. He also offers offline and online courses for business growth and digital marketing. Know about his bio, career, and journey in his own words.

Md Ashraf Malik is recognized for his writing & blogging expertise and for founding an information technology company in Bareilly, India. But he brings real recognition and fame being the founder and CEO of Digital Rain. He is a famous character among Indian SEO and Link Building folks.

His Journey

He begins his journey by joining the IIHT, Gurgaon, as his first job as a UI developer and SEO manager.

After just five months of entering IIHT, he dropout the job. He desired to become a thriving entrepreneur and blogger.

After dropping the job at the Indian Institute of Hardware Technology, he yields to his home town Bareilly. On 12 August 2014, on his 21st birthday, he founded an IT company Digital Rain, planning to deliver high-quality business development and digital marketing services in Bareilly.

At the start, he was working to get a few numbers of clients to showcase their business development and IT expertise. Agarwal Travels, a regional taxi booking agency, was his first customer. He supports him in enhancing his ranking in local search and generating more leads from search engines.

After some period, he starts gaining a lot of leads for digital marketing, website development, mobile application development, and online reputation management. Nowadays, he is one of the finest bloggers and digital marketers in Bareilly.

Biography

Md Ashraf Malik, occasionally known as Ashraf Malik, a famous entrepreneur, was born on 12 August 1993 in Bareilly, a metro city in the northern Indian state of Uttar Pradesh. He is 28 years old (As of 2022) entrepreneur. He is the CEO of Digital Rain (an IT company) and the founder of Wifi Campus (an IT training institute).

Ashraf Malik was born into a flawed Indian Muslim family in Bareilly, Uttar Pradesh. His father, Yusuf Malik, is an Indian farmer, and his mother, Firoza Begum, is a homemaker. He has one sister and one brother. He is the littlest child in his family.

Ashraf Malik says itself “entrepreneurship conducted in his blood.” To make his goal arrived true, he chose to have a graduate degree in computer science. He was admitted to Dr. A.P.J. Abdul Kalam Technical University in 2010. There, in 2014, he obtained a degree of B.Tech in computer science.

Besides being an entrepreneur, Md Ashraf Malik is a prominent user-interface designer, author, thinker, researcher, and digital influencer. He pushes to embrace the most delinquent technologies, trends, and strategies to stand forward from its competitors.

Media Contact

Digital Rain

ermdashraf@gmail.com

Source : Digital Rain

See on IssueWire