

Kingzilla Rules On Charts with The Very Impressive Dub-Funk Track 'POINT BREAK'

KingZiLLa, the Nevada Music Producer, impresses his listeners with the latest dub-funk track, 'POINT BREAK'. The song showcases his versatility in the genre.

Reno, May 2, 2022 (Issuewire.com) - A versatile and promising artist KingZiLLa has come out with his latest song 'POINT BREAK'. The song was released 5 days ago. Within a few days of its release, it has achieved milestones one after the other. Featuring BLAKE in the song, the artist seems to have added more versatility to the board. Belding electronic music with modern groove and funk, the song creates a funk-rhythmic arena that is enthusiastic and energizing. The rhythmic beats refresh with every musical subtlety. Joyous and funky in every aspect, the song provides evidence of his versatility in music composition and songwriting.

Although the music has majorly used electronic instruments, the song provides the essence of 90s music. A combination of the two has made the song on such a grand scale. Funk is a form of music that emerged out of Reggae in the 1960s and 1970s. But over a while, it extended beyond the characteristics of reggae and grew separately, like the other genres. His songs are some of the best examples of Dub-funk characteristics. Songs like 'Funny!', 'Battle Cry', 'Cloak and Dagger the Master' are brilliant exhibitions of the characteristics of the genre.

The lyrical portion is the best element of the song. The song deciphers his ability in songwriting. In addition, his vocals have played the perfect role in making the song one of the most impressive songs in the genre. The Nevada Music Producer has impressed all his listeners with his swag. KingZiLLa's next project is with director Kevin swagger for placement of his song in upcoming films on Netflix and movie theatres.
