Biography:

MADDU (Madalin Oprisanu) is a singer-songwriter from South-West London. He was born and raised in a village in Romania where having access to opportunities felt almost impossible.

As a child, he always dreamt of moving to London to study and pursue a career in music. This came true when he moved here to complete his undergraduate degree in Music Performance at ICMP and his Master's in Music Management at Tileyard Education – the largest music community in the world, where he had the chance to learn from personalities such as Martyn Ware.
