

Architect-Turned-Artist Mehrad Nasr Leaves Spectators Spellbound With His Minimalistic Visual Art

Melbourne, Australia Jun 21, 2022 (Issuewire.com) - Mehrad Nasr has a rare talent. His art materializes the philosophy of “less is more”. The minimalistic art produced by this architect-turned-artist leaves people spellbound. Beauty lies in simplicity, and the most beautiful thing can be made from a simple straight line if you have the artistic ability and vision needed to create such beauty. The 32-year-old artist Mehrad Nasr visualises for the world the deepest moments of life through his digital drawings. His artwork expresses the essence of daily life, the ever-cherished moments, and the feelings that connect hearts. His efficient technique with lines has made him prominent in the artistic community. Having learned to draw in his childhood, he has never stopped. He has experimented with many techniques and worked with various visual art media until he attained sublimity in this craft.

While studying architecture, he began to learn about minimalistic art forms and discovered his innate talent for line art, which eventually transformed his life. He became intrigued by the concept of simplifying art forms without losing their meaning. His audiences love and admire his storytelling approach to drawing. The subjects he chooses to represent are often polar contrasts. Sometimes he selects ideal beauty as his subject, and at other times, the impurity of reality. This breadth demonstrates the versatility of the artist and his deeply passionate craftsmanship.

Taking inspiration from artists like Picasso, he continues to translate his imagination onto a digital canvas. Being a believer in the philosophy “less is more”, the artist Mehrad Nasr incorporates this attitude into his work so that this philosophy is materialized in each piece. His drawn outlines, rendered with a single color, are impactful and have a sensory beauty. His brilliance in the drawing is unique, and therefore, his work has been exhibited and appreciated on several social media platforms. If you would like to see his artworks and learn more about him, follow the artist on social media – Instagram, Twitter, and YouTube – or visit his personal website.
