

BOYOG- Be On Your Own Guestlist

BOYOG

Mumbai, Maharashtra Jun 9, 2022 (IssueWire.com) - After a week full of work and a hectic schedule, firings from our clumsy bosses, come the most awaited part of the week. Yes, that's right, We are talking about the WEEKENDS! Isn't it the most amazing part of the week, and BOYOG makes sure that one's weekend plans out more easily. The app contains all the information that one needs about their favorite clubs with just a click. Not only the ones we have known but also the ones that have just come up and are new talks of the town. From making reservations to getting to know the DJ of the night. It has it all. And guess what? No more of those painful Queues.

There was a time when going clubbing was more than just reaching a place and dancing our hearts out. It involved all sorts of calls for entering the club without even realizing which DJ is playing there. Thus making everyone frustrated by the end of the night. That's when we decided to put an end to those frustrating calls and make people's life much easier.

BOYOG – Bring Your Own Guest List will definitely satisfy all your needs in one place. From searching the coolest place for booking a table along with the drinks. We have built this app that was tailored just to all the partygoer's needs. So no, need to wait in long queues, one click on and you have already got an entry! The app will give you all the latest info about the upcoming events and the hottest DJs while making sure only the top-rated places show on your feed. We have designed this app in such a way that it meets all the needs of party lovers, thus making our weekends much more hassle-free. And if you're planning b'day bashes or anniversary get-togethers and you seem to be paralyzed when it comes to deciding places, we've got your back. Not only have you to plan your parties. Here at BOYOG, we host special parties just for our app users!!

So here you go party animals. Your weekends are now much more than making reservations and worrying about the guest lists.
