In the past, he was an Assistant Clinical Professor of Neurology at the Long Island Jewish Medical Center and the State University of New York at Stony Brook.

Neurology is a branch of medicine dealing with disorders of the nervous system. Neurologists are licensed medical specialists who diagnose and treat disorders that affect the brain, spinal cord, nerves, and muscles of patients. They examine a patient's mental and physical status, conduct medical tests and scans, and evaluate the results to diagnose and treat the patient.

An authority in his field, Dr. Levy has been recognized as a Top Doctor by Castle Connolly every year since 1999 and has been named one of America's Top Physicians by the Consumers Research Council of America and NY Top Docs.
