

The Quiet Light Project Livestream Show is seeking submissions to honor people who have made a difference in Brooklyn

The September 18th Livestream Show is made possible with the support of: the Brooklyn Arts Council, NYC Cultural Affairs, NY State Council on the Arts, American Immigration Council, Hopestreet, Mertz Gilmore Foundation, Howard Gilman Foundation.

The poster features a large black silhouette of a violin against a circular background with a pink-to-yellow gradient. The text 'Quiet Light Project' is written in large white letters on the left. Below it, the event details are listed: 'Livestream September 18th 5 pm' and 'www.celticfiddle.com'. At the bottom, the 'BROOKLYN ARTS COUNCIL' logo is centered, with various partner logos including the Mertz Gilmore Foundation, NYC Cultural Affairs, NY State Council on the Arts, American Immigration Council, and Hopestreet.

Quiet Light Project

Livestream September 18th 5 pm
www.celticfiddle.com

BROOKLYN ARTS COUNCIL

Mertz Gilmore Foundation
NYC Cultural Affairs
NEW YORK STATE OF OPPORTUNITY
Council on the Arts
American Immigration Council
Hopestreet

cur le chéile" ('We are better together'), the Quiet Light Project is seeking submissions to honor people who have contributed to their Brooklyn community. The September Livestream September 18th event will include music and video to celebrate their contributions.

Nominees can be anyone from the bus driver who has an extra smile for passengers, to a grandparent who always has time for children, to people who volunteer in their neighborhoods. Our vision is to uplift and inspire audiences to be their own "quiet light" in their community.

SUBMISSIONS

In 200 words or less, tell us about the person you are nominating to be honored in the Quiet Light Project. What are they doing that is special? Include anything that helps tell the story - a photo, a phrase they say, or a specific memory you have. Our committee will accept admissions until August 8th through the contact page at www.celticfiddle.com

The livestream musical performance on September 18th at 5 pm EST is free and streaming information will be available at celticfiddle.com

SPONSORS

The Quiet Light Project is made possible in part through the support of the Brooklyn Arts Council, NYC Cultural Affairs, New York State Council on the Arts, American Immigration Council, Hope street, Mertz Gilmore Foundation and the Howard Gilman Foundation.

PERFORMERS

Produced by Celtic fiddle-guitar duo Cady Finlayson & Vita Tanga, the show will include Spirited and soulful music as well as video and dance enhanced with wisdom and inspiration from the Ancient Celts. Performers participating include dancers from the Buckley School of Irish dance, percussionist Takafumi Nikaido, global guitar melodies by Vita Tanga, and Celtic fiddle by Cady Finlayson.

###

Media Contact

Cady Finlayson

cadyfinlayson@gmail.com

347-701-8519

Source : Cady Finlayson

See on IssueWire