Abu Zabi, United Arab Emirates Jul 3, 2022 (Issuewire.com) - Al Dana Amphitheatre, Bahrain's newest and most exciting live entertainment destination, today unveiled more exciting details about its upcoming calendar of events for the 2022 season. Among the world-renowned names confirmed to perform at the open-air venue in October and November are renowned DJ Tiësto, Scottish singer-songwriter and musician Lewis Capaldi, and a much-loved regional icon –Abdulmajeed Abdullah.

The venue kicks off its second season on 5th October with a sell-out show by global star Justin Bieber. Later that month, on Friday, 21st October, Al Dana Amphitheatre will welcome another international headliner: Grammy® Award-winning, platinum-certified DJ and producer Tiësto, who is the only artist to ever hold the titles of “#1 DJ” from Rolling Stone and “The Greatest DJ of All Time” courtesy of Mixmag.

Also in the line-up is Lewis Capaldi, whose hugely successful single “Someone You Loved” is the longest song ever to remain in the UK Top Ten singles chart. Capaldi is the first artist in history to sell out an Arena tour prior to the release of a debut album (tickets sold out in 1 second). Fans are expected to travel from overseas to see him in action on Al Dana Amphitheatre’s stage on Saturday, 26th November.

The calendar also features iconic artists from closer to home. Last season the venue hosted regional stars including Ahlam and Hussain Al Jassmi, continuing this stellar theme by welcoming Abdulmajeed Abdullah, known as the “Prince of Tarab”, who will also be lighting up Al Dana Amphitheatre’s stage this season, with a show on Friday, 14th of October.

Tickets to these events will go on sale at a later date via Al Dana Amphitheatre’s official website, www.aldana.com.bh.

Shane Chalmers, Chief Executive Officer of Al Dana Amphitheatre, said, “Everyone at Al Dana Amphitheatre is committed to making each show the best of its kind, but it all starts with an exhilarating calendar of events. Being open to the elements, we use these hot months to plan and prepare for the shows ahead, and we look forward to announcing other shows along with welcoming everyone back to our new season in October, with even more artists to enhance what is already a star-studded schedule.”

Located in Sakhir, Al Dana Amphitheatre is fast becoming a regional industry leader, further promoting the Kingdom as an essential entertainment destination and contributing to its economic growth. Additionally, the venue can host a variety of indoor and outdoor events for global event promoters, corporate events, and private celebrations.
